

Communicate. Contribute. Create.

How you choose to take part is up to you. You might want to simply keep in touch by reading emails or consider hosting a conversation. There are events, working groups and forums, all open for you to share your knowledge, experience or concerns.

Read the staff newsletter

Read the Working Locally email updates

Read and respond to emails

Check out the Working Locally website

Complete surveys

Attend team meetings

Join the Facebook Team Page

Seek and give confidential feedback

Talk to a team member

Take part in a Stop and Learn workshop

Share ideas online through the Working Locally forums

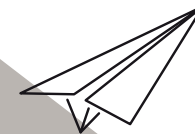

Join a Working Group

Host a conversation

Think about your personal development

Go to Working Locally events

